6. Access Request procedures [Section 51(1)(c) and Section 51(1)(f)]

6.1 The purpose of this section is to provide requesters with sufficient guidelines and procedures to facilitate a request for access to a record held by the Company.

6.2 It is important to note that an application for access to information can be refused in the event that the application does not comply with the procedural requirements of PAIA. In addition, the successful completion and submission of an access request form does not automatically allow the requester access to the requested record.

Note: If it is reasonably suspected that the requester has obtained access to the Company’s records through the submission of materially false or misleading information, legal proceedings may be instituted against such requester.

6.3 In order for the Company to respond to requests in a timely manner, an Access Request Form should be completed, taking due knowledge of the following Instructions for the Completion of Forms.

Completion and Submission of Access Request Form

- The requester must use the prescribed form, Access Request Form – Annexure A, to make the request for access to a record. The form must be completed in the English Language.
- Type or print in BLOCK LETTERS and answer every question. If a question does not apply, state 'N/A' in response to that question.
- If there is nothing to disclose in reply to a particular question state 'nil' in response to that question.
- If there is insufficient space on a printed form in which to answer a question, additional information may be provided on an additional folio. When the use of an additional folio is required, precede each answer thereon with the title applicable to the question.
- The requester must provide sufficient detail on the request form to enable the head of the private body to identify the record and the requester. The requester should also indicate which form of access is required. The requester should also indicate if any other manner is to be used to inform the requester and state the necessary particulars to be so informed.
- The requester must identify the right that is sought to be exercised or to be protected and provide an explanation of why the requested record is required for the exercise or protection of that right.
- If a request is made on behalf of another person, the requester must then submit proof of the capacity in which the requester is making the request to the satisfaction of the head of the private body.
- The request must be made to the contact person indicated in the Contact Details section, via conventional mail or e-mail.

Fees

- An initial non-refundable R 57.00 (fifty-seven rand) request fee is payable on submission. This fee is not applicable to personal requests, referring to any person seeking access to records that contain their personal information.
- Payment details can be obtained from the contact person as detailed in Section 51(1)(a) and payment can be made via a direct deposit, by bank guaranteed cheque, by Electronic Transfer or by postal order (no credit card payments are accepted). Proof of payment must be supplied.

Note: If the request for access is successful an access fee will be required for the search, reproduction and/or preparation of the record/s. The access fee must be paid prior to access being given to the requested record.

Notification

Requests will be evaluated and the requester notified within 30 (thirty) days of receipt of the completed Access Request Form.

Notifications may include:

- Notification of Extension Period (if required)

The requester may be notified whether an extension period is required for the processing of their requests including:

- The required extension period, which will not exceed an additional 30 (thirty) days;
- Adequate reasons for the extension; and
- Notice that the requester may lodge an application with a court against the extension and the procedure, including the period, for lodging the application.

Payment of Deposit (if applicable)

- The requester may be notified whether a deposit is required. A deposit will be required depending on certain factors such as the volume and/or format of the information requested and the time required for search and preparation of the record/s. The notice will state:
 - The amount of the deposit payable (if applicable); and
 - That the requester may lodge an application with a court against the payment of the deposit and the procedure, including the period, for lodging the application.

Note: In the event that access is refused to the requested record, the full deposit will be refunded to the requester.

Decision on Request

- If no extension period or deposit is required the requester will be notified, within 30 (thirty) days, of the decision on their request.
- If the request for access to a record is successful, the requester will be notified of the following:
 - The amount of the access fee payable on prior to gaining access to the record (if any);
 - An indication of the form in which the access will be granted; and
 - Notice that the requester may lodge an application with a court against the payment of the access fee and the procedure, including the period, for lodging the application.
- If the request for access to a record is not successful, the requester will be notified of the following:
 - Adequate reasons for the refusal, refer to Third Party Information and Grounds for Refusal below; and
 - That the requester may lodge an application with a court against the refusal of the request and the procedure, including the period, for lodging an application.

Third Party Information

If access is requested to a record that contains information about a third party, the Company is obliged to attempt to contact this third party to inform them of the request. This enables the third party the opportunity of responding by either consenting to the access or providing reasons why the access should be denied.

In the event of the third-party furnishing reasons for the support or denial of access, our designated contact person will consider these reasons in determining whether access should be granted or not.

If, after all reasonable steps have been taken, the third party is not informed of the request and the third party did not make any representations to support or deny access, any decision whether to grant the request for access will be made with regard to the fact that the third party did not have the opportunity to make representations.

Grounds for Refusal

The Company may legitimately refuse to grant access to a requested record that falls within a certain category. Grounds on which the Company may refuse access include but are not limited to:

- Protecting personal information that the Company holds about a third party, who is a natural person, including a deceased person, from unreasonable disclosure;
- Protecting commercial information that the Company holds about a third party or the Company, for example trade secrets, financial, commercial, scientific or technical information that may harm the commercial or financial interests of the Company or the third party;
- If disclosure of the record would result in a breach of a duty of confidence owed to a third party in terms of an agreement;
- If the disclosure of the record would endanger the life or physical safety of an individual;
- If the disclosure of the record would prejudice or impair the security of property;
- If disclosure of the record would prejudice or impair the protection of a person in accordance with a witness protection scheme;
- If disclosure of the record would prejudice or impair the protection of the safety of the public;
- The record is privileged from production in legal proceedings, unless the privilege has been waived;
- Disclosure of the record containing trade secrets, financial, commercial, scientific or technical information would harm the commercial or financial interests of the Company;
- Disclosure of the record would put the Company at a disadvantage in contractual or other negotiations or prejudice it in commercial competition;
- Requests for information that are clearly frivolous or vexatious , or which involve an unreasonable diversion of resources.
